(Colm Hagan)

Next Tuesday Colm Hagan takes his leave of our parish. We thank him most sincerely for his work and his help during these last few weeks. We ask God's blessing on his future studies in Rome.

(How to Pray)

This Sunday, the disciples beg Jesus for one of the most essential aspects of discipleship by saying: Lord, teach us to pray. By turning to the Lord in this way, they model for us the fundamental attitude of prayer. We must recognize our own poverty before Christ and turn to Him.

All of our prayer is a gift. St. Augustine captures something of the very deepest nature of prayer when he points out that even our desire to praise God comes from God.

Pope Benedict XVI says, "Christianity is not a religion of fear but of trust and of love for the Father who loves us." Our Heavenly Father has many incredible things He longs to bestow on us, should we seek to be united with Him in prayer. As parish leaders, don't let these last weeks of summer pass without encouraging your parishioners to use the leisure summer affords for some additional prayer!
