Weekend Masses

You are now very familiar with the need to sanitise hands on entering and leaving the church and also with how we manage the reception of Holy Communion therefore, our Pastoral Council members are taking a break for a few weeks. Please continue to use a face covering. Currently this also applies to funerals and weddings.

Thank You

A sincere word of thanks and appreciation to all those who made their parish contributions during the week. In these challenging times your support and solidarity means a lot.

Trocaire Emergency Appeal

Over 30 million people across East Africa are struggling to survive a devastating hunger crisis. A church collection will be taken up on the weekend of 13th/14th November. Please donate what you can to help the people of Somalia, South Sudan, Ethiopia & The State of South Kordofan.

Synodal Pathway

The diocesan phase of the preparation for the 2023 Synod will involve the largest consultation with the lay faithful ever to take place and will examine what life is like in the Church at this moment in time. The Diocesan Pastoral Team has decided to circulate four questions for consultation in the Archdiocese of Armagh:

- 1. What memory or experience of the Catholic Church do you value or cherish most in your life?
- 2. How can our Church be a welcoming and inclusive community?
- 3. How can we be listened to more effectively and encouraged to participate in decision-making processes in the Church?
- 4. What inspires you in the life of your Parish Community to bring the love of Christ into the world. What discourages you?

Question sheets are available in each of our churches. Your responses should be anonymous and can be returned to Ara Coeli Armagh by the 31st January.

The Burden of Grief

*You have turned my mourning into dancing, you have stripped off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy.
Psalm 30:11*

When the burden of grief is heavy,
lighten our load and lift our spirits.
When despair darkens our horizon,
shine forth your light and lead the way.
When our hearts feel broken,
comfort us and hold us in your embrace.
When we rage against the injustice of loss,
channel this power into all that is good.
When sorrow surrounds us,
wrap us in hope that we may endure.
When we are overwhelmed in the dark of night,
may the breaking of dawn bring peace.
For we know, O Lord, our God, that you hear our cries for help,
and so we ask you to turn our mourning into dancing,
to take away our sadness and to clothe us with joy.
