San Valentino (St. Valentine) was a Third Century Roman priest and martyr during the reign of Claudius II. He was arrested for helping Christians who were being persecuted by Claudius in Rome and for performing marriage ceremonies between young Christian couples in love.

The guard where Valentine was imprisoned listened as he preached day in and day out. As the legend goes, the guard, Asterius, had a daughter who was blind. He asked Valentine to hear her confession in which he did. Afterwards, Valentine put his hands over the girl's eyes and chanted: "Lord Jesus Christ, enlighten your handmaid, because You are God, the True Light." Immediately the little girl regained her eyesight.

The night before his execution, Valentine wrote the young girl a note and signed it, "From your Valentine." Valentine was then beaten with clubs and stoned and finally beheaded on February 14th, around the year 269. He was buried on the Flaminian Way and a chapel was later built over his remains.
