World day of Migrants & Refugees

Sunday 29th September

No one leaves home unless home is the mouth of a shark.

You only run for the border when you see the whole city running as well.

Your neighbours running faster than you have to understand, that no one puts their children in a boat unless the water is safer than the land.

No one burns their palms under trains, beneath carriages.

No one spends days and nights in the stomach of a truck, feeding on newspaper unless the miles travelled mean something more than journey.

No one crawls under fences.

No one wants to be beaten, pitied.

I don't know what I've become but I know that anywhere is safer than here.
